CAMBRIDGE EXAM (Choose one)

(FCE) Cambridge First Certificate in English

The FCE proves you have the language skills to live and work independently in an English-speaking country or study in courses taught in English.

(CAE) Cambridge Certificate of Advanced English

The CAE is the next level exam after the FCE in the Cambridge suite of exams. It is proof of high-level achievement in English learning.

(CPE) Cambridge Certificate of Proficiency in English

The CPE is the highest level exam after the CAE in the Cambridge suite of exams. This exam will provide evidence of a highly competent level, proving that your ability is almost comparable to that of a native speaker.
